

The IPS Sales Tracker allows you to do basic dispatching as well as helps you set sales targets and visually track your progress against those targets. The main idea behind the sales tracker is to provide carriers with real-time view of sales. For more detail on how to use our Sales Tracker, check out our Sales Tracker User Manual.

